FRANCESCA OF RIMINI.

"When yet the convent wrapt me
In its gloom,
And my young soul was brought before
The tomb,
With trembling hand to lift the awerone veil
And peer beyond, at peace, I didst
not quail;
For Ignorance and Faith are prone to see
What so is taught them of eternity.
"With all the mysteries of life unknown
I couldst but view it with a stifled moan
That caught my good Confessor's
holo car,
And fill'd him with such deep and haunting fear
That I was questioned long and earnestly.
But found no words to speak my misery
"Twas thus, within those walls of sacred quest
My heart first knew the hunger and unrest
That Nature breathes into all things of clay
With their life-blood, and bids all things obey;
Great God gave soul and body both their need,
A crime the one to starve, the other feel.
"A spotless virgin, barred from every sight
And sound of worldly pleasure and delight,
And yet the hours of my vestal
sleep
Brought dreams, not of the clouds
and anthems deep,
Nor of the crucifix and alters high,
But dreams—such dreams—o'er which to weep and sigh.
"Twas then those nameless visions came that seek Their lodging in the budding heart
and speak
The wonders and mysteries of love;
Those secret whisperings that thrill and move
The languid blood more quickly in its pace—
The child's transmute into the woman's grace.
"I never inhaled the perfume of a flower
That didst not thrill me with a mystic power
And waft my spirit on its zephyr wings
Into a realm of sweet imaginings,
To light, full soon, upon some Eden-spot,
With life and creed and all, save love, forgot.
"And oft when I wouldst kneel in secret prayer
I couldst not bring my wandering thoughts to share
The deep contrition that I knew must pave
The way of one who didst a blessing crave;
The quickened pulse wouldst give my cheek a flush,
And riot heart-beats wake the sacred hush.
"And then there came a day and all
was changed,
With Lord of Rimini it was arranged
That I should wed the Prince, his elder son—
I then knew not there was a younger one.
I bade farewell to books and tutors
gray,
And didst prepare to meet my Lord straightway.
"He came—not Lancelot whom I must wed,
But Paolo, his brother, in his stead—
A youth the very gods had shaped,
"twould seem,
To fit the romance of a fevered dream.
Alack, I didst not know until too late
That he was but to bear me to my nate.
"We met and looked into each other's eyes,

And in that moment knew our paradise;
A long, deep look of questioning
that sought
The inner soul and there its answer caught;
Somewhere, somewhere, we two had met before,
And knowing this we cared to ask
no more.
"We met, not with that stranger-
greet and cold
Of those between whose laps the seas have rolled
Their distance blue, but as two friends who long Have sought each other midst the passing throng,
And many a wistful glance in vain
have cast,
But now meet face to face and cry,
"at last!"
"Ah, yes! we two had met before,
for in Those visions sweet that wrought
my convent sin,
How oft, at night, beneath some mystic moon,
Had our two spirits met in that commune
That feels and knows another soul is near,
Yet finds not in the gloam discernment clear.
"As some wild mountain stream
that in a day
Leaps forth, when springtime sun
with amorous ray Hath kissed the ice bound rocks,
so then my heart,
Warmed by his glance, didst in that moment part
The flood-gates of a long pent sorrow to bear
All things before it in a mad career.
"I fell, but not when Paolo's warm
kiss
First reached my willing cheek
with thrill of bliss,
But when I didst before the altar
bow
With his Guineahen brother, there to vow
Eternal fealty and holy love—
'Twas then alone I didst the wanton prove.
"For she that weds for wealth or rank or power,
Or aught there is save love, dost in that hour
Her virtue sell, even as the shameless maid
That bares her charms to any that hath paid;
The heart of each the same, and same the vice.
A kingdom or a penny be the price."

WILL SPEAK HERE.

We are requested to announce that Hon. John W. Yerkes, candidate for Governor, will address the people of this city and county at the Opera House, on Wednesday next, October 3d, at 2 o'clock p. m.
Mr. Yerkes is an orator, and all who hear him will be pleased.

CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE.

REPORT OF GRAND JURY.

The following is the final report of the grand jury to the circuit court:
Franklin Circuit Court,
To Hon. Jas. E. Cantrell, Judge
Franklin Circuit Court:
The grand jury by your honor empaneled, sworn, and charged at the present term of the Franklin Circuit Court, beg leave to report that:
We have, to the best of our ability, under the law, our oaths and conscience, done our duty.
Because of the difficulty in procuring the attendance of witnesses from a distance this grand jury has been able to make but slight investigation into the matter of the assassination of the Hon. Wm.
Goebel, and we ask that such persons as are now under bond to appear in this court to answer any indicments that may be found against them in that matter be held to appear at another term.

"If we are permitted to suggest we believe the law-making power of the State should make some provision for the payment of actual expenses of witnesses before grand juries, where such witnesses attend in another county than their own, but the expenditure of the State's funds in that behalf should be guarded against abuse.

We have examined the jail, city workhouse, county poorhouse and the State's prison at Frankfort, and find said institutions in a healthful, cleanly condition and well kept; but a large bath tub should be provided at once for use of inmates at poorhouse. There are certain inmates that require bathing two or three times per week, and to bathe them in a wash tub
is asking too much of the keeper.
There should be some provision by the county court or proper county official, to remedy, if possible, the filthy condition of the closets in the back yard of the courthouse property.

"This grand jury asks that your honor charge the next grand jury concerning the sale of a poison called cocaine, which, from indications before us, seems to be an evil rapidly growing in this community, and working great and irreparable injury to young men and boys. Our information as to this matter came to us too late for us to make such an investigation as the gravity of the subject demands.

It occurs to us that, as the next term of this court begins January 1st, the grand jury at that term of court would do well to examine into the financial condition of the city of Frankfort and the county of Franklin. From observation the finances of the city and county of Franklin are in a deplorable condition, and every intelligent, honest effort should be made by all in authority to remedy and relieve the situation.

In our investigation in the matter of gambling within the county and city we have discovered that these officers of the city of Frankfort and the county of Franklin who are by law conservators of the peace have never taken the oath by law required, touching their duties as to the detection and suppression of gambling. We ask that your honor request the mayor of Frankfort to see that the entire police force of the city is instructed as to its duty in this behalf, and that each member thereof immediately take the oath prescribed by section 277 of the Kentucky Statutes, which reads: "It shall be the duty and a part of the oath of every town or city marshal or his deputy, or other like police officer or sheriff that he will endeavor to the best of his ability to detect and prosecute all gamblers and others violating the laws against gaming."

Gaming evidently goes on here,
but the officers appearing before us seem to be entirely ignorant of the law requiring them to the best of their ability to endeavor to detect and prosecute all gamblers, etc., and that ignorance may hereafter be no protection to officers failing to do their duty under the law we ask your honor especially to give in charge to the next grand jury sections 1963 and 1964 of the Kentucky Statutes, which prescribe not only the duties of police and other officers, but as well affix the penalties for failure to perform those prescribed duties.

We thank your honor for the courtesy shown and protection against insult you have given this grand jury in the discharge of its duty.

We hand you herewith the indicaments we have felt justified from the evidence in returning as true bills, and respectfully ask to be discharged.

Foreman Grand Jury.

We have two young fellows in our community whose common weight is about 110, but their courtship size is a fraction over a ton.

Mr. Anthony Stivers called on Miss Ella not long ago. They will soon get married, I guess.

ECHO.

A REGULAR HONEY.

The young man who has been advertising the Finzer Bros. chewing tobacco succeeded in making his advertisement most unique and popular.

In ordinary every-day attire Mr. H. F. Mattox is a nice appearing and pleasant young man, but when he gets on his "business clothes" and sets out to "work" his advertising he just puts the climax on anything of the sort we ever witnessed. In fact he is a whole circus by himself.

The laughing, good humored crowd that followed Mr. Mattox in his various characters showed how thoroughly he did his work in advertising the goods of his house. His three characters were "The Silly Boy," "The Rubie" and "The Tramp." He represented Finzer Bros., anti-trust, "Three Boys Brand" tobacco, and did it to a turn.

It's a Serious Thing

For a woman to come to that period known as change of life. It is almost always a period of suffering, and the derangement of mind and body in some times so great that the family life is utterly marred by the unhappy wife and mother. At such a time every woman needs just the help that is given by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It works with Nature, soothes the nerves by nourishing them, and cures diseases of the delicate organs. In brief, it makes weak women strong; sick women well.

"Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine, nor any other narcotic.

"I have taken four bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' for female weakness and change of life," writes Mrs. Lizzie A. Bowman, of New Matamoras, Washington Co., Ohio. "before I began taking it I could not do anything. I had such pains in my head and in the back of my neck that I thought I would lose my mind. Now I can work every day and do not suffer. I recommend 'Favorite Prescription' to all women suffering in the period of change of life. It is the best medicine I have ever found."

Every woman should send for a free copy of Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser. Send at once-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE STREET FAIR.

Frankfort's Second Annual Street Fair opened on Tuesday under favorable auspices. Barring a little more heat, than was comfortable the weather was all that could have been asked until yesterday, when there was a misty rain.

There was an unusually large and jolly crowd present for the opening day.

The booths, decorations, etc., were more profuse and beautiful by far than those of last year. We are unable, owing to lack of space, to give a separate description of each.

The parade of the Elks, Jr. O. U. A. W., Odd Fellows, Knights of Macabees and other benevolent orders was a decided hit, and every body seemed pleased.

The Mehan dog show was par excellence the best ever seen in this section, and the training these animals exhibited bordered on the reasoning faculty. It was unanimously pronounced the best of the exhibitions.

The Baldwin Bros., in their spectacular trapeze work were superb. The Vaudeville and the Merry-Go Round kept the crowds animated and occupied.

The balloon ascensions were brilliant successes. The cake walks were gems of fun and frolic.

The minstrel shows were immense.

The floral hall and the various exhibits therein were a dream of loveliness in foliage, fruitage and their preservation.

The poultry show was by far better than last year. The exhibits of fruits, vegetables, wheat, corn, tobacco, etc., were far above the average.

The exhibits of needlework, drawnwork, etc., were fully up to the mark, many pieces giving evidence of great care, skill and painstaking labor.

We will publish the full list of premiums as soon as the judges can prepare same.

The exhibition of graceful lady riders was a success in every way.

The ring of model horses brought quite an array of beautiful animals.

The decorated bicycles, ridden by girls, made a beautiful display.

The decorated baby buggies, with their handsome occupants, commanded a tremendous crowd.

The ice exhibit of the Frankfort Ice Co., with fruits and flowers in the center of the large cakes of ice, were simply out of sight.

Taken as a whole the Fair was a success in every way.

As evidence, there were a number of gentlemen here from elsewhere, who expressed astonishment at the extent and excellence of the displays.

There are always some kickers and they were not wanting this time. But generally the expression was that the old town did itself proud.

Editor's Awful Plight.

F. M. Higgins, editor Seneea (Ill.) News, was afflicted for years with piles that no doctor or remedy helped until he tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve. He writes two boxes wholly cured him. FRANKFORT, SEPT. 22, 1900.

DISTINGUISHED PHYSICIAN DEAD.

On Monday last Dr. Preston Brown Scott died at the Norton Infirmary, in Louisville, of typhoid fever, after an illness of several weeks.

Dr. Scott was the oldest child of the late Col. Robert Willmot Scott, of this county. He was born here, September 12, 1832, at the home- stead near Duck Creek Station, now owned by Mr. C. R. Mason.

He was a man of fine mind and of great culture. He graduated at Georgetown College and at the University of Tennessee, afterwards taking his degree of M. D. at the University of Louisville, Medical Department.

When the Civil War commenced Dr. Scott was living in Mississippi, but he enlisted in the Confederate Army as Surgeon of the 4th Kentucky, Col. Isaac H. Traub commanding. He was rapidly promoted, and was chief surgeon of a department at the close of the strife.

When the Southern banner was furled he returned to his native State and located in Louisville, where he soon rose to the front rank in his profession.

Dr. Scott was a man of commanding presence, a Kentuckian of the old-fashioned courtly kind. Rather reserved to the outside world, he was geniality and tenderness personified in his home circle and with his friends.

Our earliest recollections of our old home neighborhood are connected with Dr. Scott as one of the stalwart young men who were a jolly and happy crowd and were an honor to the community and State in after life.

Dr. Scott was a member of Christ Episcopal Cathedral, in Louisville, and was buried from there on Tuesday, Right Rev. T. C. Dudley, Bishop of the Diocese of Louisville, conducting the solemn services. The remains were brought to this city and laid to rest in the family lot in our cemetery.

He leaves a wife, three children, three sisters and one brother to mourn the death of a noble and upright Christian gentleman. Sorrows have fallen thickly upon this devoted family in the last few weeks.

May the God rest lightly upon the stilled heart of this grand man.

NARROW ESCAPE.

While Dr. John South and Mr. George Shenkel were coming along the pike leading from "The Flat Creek to the Swallowhead pike, on Friday night, the horse they were driving swerved from the road on a steep hillside, throwing both gentlemen down, turning the buggy upside down and causing it to roll down the hill, while the horse was caught on the top of the fence.

Upon regaining their feet the gentlemen found that it was so dark they could not see what to do without a light. One of them went to a farmhouse some distance away, procured a light and returned. They then took the harness off the horse, pushing her over the fence, thus releasing her. They then pulled the fence down, hitched the mare to the buggy and succeeded in getting the outfit back on the road. The mare stood perfectly still after the accident.

Strange as may neither gentleman was hurt in any way, the buggy was not even scratched, and only the overcheck of the harness was broken.

It was one of the narrowest escapes we ever heard of.

JEWISH NEW YEAR.

Our fellow-citizens of Jewish faith celebrated the Jewish New Year, 5561, commencing at sundown on Sunday last and continuing until sundown on Monday, by abstaining from all labor and the usual religious ceremonies. All the business houses owned by them were closed during the hours named.

THE TALL SYCAMORE OF THE LICKING DONE UP.

We regret to announce that Hon. Albert S. Berry, Congressman from the 6th District, was defeated at the Democratic primary held on Saturday last, for re-nomination, by Mr. D. Linn Groch, a patent medicine vendor, of Cincinnati.

Mr. Berry has ever been the friend of Frankfort and of the improvement of the Kentucky river. But for his incessant labors in that behalf the continuous contract on the Kentucky river improvement would not have been placed in the River and Harbor Bill.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

Kentuckians all love to hear an orator speak. An opportunity will be given to the people of this city and county, on Wednesday, October 2d, to hear Hon. John W. Yerkes, Republican candidate for Governor, who is one of the finest speakers in the State. The speech will be made at the Opera House at 2 o'clock p. m.

There will doubtless be a large crowd present. If you want a good seat come early.

UNSEEMLY.

James Matthews, of Jessamine county, had one hundred and fifty chickens stolen one night last week. It was only a coincidence that the Methodist Conference was in session only a few miles away at the time.—Georgetown Times, Sept. 6.

We regret to see our friend Bell allowing an item like the above to appear in his columns. There is a prevalent disposition to covertly censure public journals. But for the good people of all churches and not least, by any means, the Methodist church, this country would soon drift back to savagery.

NOMINATED.

The Populists, Brown Democrats and Republicans met in joint convention at Paducah on Tuesday, and nominated Hon. Ben C. Keyes, of Calloway county, as their candidate for Congress. His name goes under the log cabin, and he will thus be able to make a strong race.

ATTENTION EVERYBODY.

All who enjoy an eloquent and instructive speech should come to the Opera House in this city, on Wednesday, October 2d, to hear Hon. John W. Yerkes, candidate for Governor, who will address the people of this city and county upon the issues of the day. The hour for speaking will be two o'clock p. m. Let there be a large crowd out to hear him.

POLICE PREMIUM.

Officer Carleton Thomasson was awarded the prize for the handsomest appearance as a mounted policeman in the parade on Tuesday last.

Mr. Thomasson is a fine looking young man.

Don't Get Thin

Get fat; get nice and plump; there is safety in plumpness.

Summer has tried your food-works; winter is coming to try your breath-mill. Fall is the time to brace yourself.

But weather is tricky; look out! Look out for colds especially.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the subtlest of helps. It is food, the easiest food in the world; it is more than food, it helps you digest your food, and get more nutriment from it.

Don't get thin, there is safety in plumpness. Man woman and child.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample of this agreeable taste, will surprise you. SCOTT & BROWN, Chemists, 405 Pearl Street, New York, Sec. and $1.00; all druggists.

STAMPING GROUND.

Mrs. Merritt Wayts and Miss Katie Jones, of Georgetown, were visitors of Mrs. A. J. Goddard this week.

Miss Edna Ferrill, of Indianapolis, Ind., was the guest of Mr. J. T. Reynolds and family this week.

The hemp fields are now the resort of the dove hunters, and they have had fine sport.

Mr. John B. Adams has retired from the coal and lumber business, having sold out to his partner, Mr. W. H. Oldham. Mr. Adams will be with Mr. J. G. Blanton in the furniture and undertaking business.

Our town trustees are determined to improve the town as fast as possible. They have added four new street lamps and have had a crossing put down in front of the postoffice.

Miss Maggie Sprake is quite ill with typhoid fever.

Miss Lillian Bruner, the little daughter of Postmaster T. J. Bruner, is quite sick with malaria. Mr. John S. Lindsay, who has been sick with malarial fever, is improving.

We are glad to report Mr. Wm. Reynolds, who has been so ill with typhoid fever, as improving.

Mr. E. P. Burrier and wife, of Keene, were guests of her father, Rev. T. Warr Beagle, this week.

Mr. J. T. Reynolds, of Cynthia, who was called here by the illness of Mr. Wm. Reynolds, has returned home.

Mr. B. S. Calvert left Monday for St. Louis, Mo.

Master Rankin Duvall has come to Lexington to attend the A. & M. College.

Mr. Richard C. Head is visiting his parents, Mr. Joel S. Head and wife, at Morehead.

The new bank building is finished, and the bank officers and fixtures have moved in.

NEW LUMBER MILLS.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Mr. J. E. Marcum in today's paper. He has purchased the Kenney, Bridges & Co. mills, and will manufacture all kinds of lumber. He proposes to sell at the lowest practicable figures.

Read his notice in this paper and see him before purchasing your lumber.

SHEEP.

Mr. H. G. Davis, of Chouteville, has about 150 stock ewes for sale. Farmers needing ewes would do well to call on him.

CASTORIA.

Read the Signature of Charles H. Thatcher HON. JOHN W. YERKES TO SPEAK HERE.

We are requested by the Republican Campaign Committee to announce that Hon. John W. Yerkes, cand., for Governor, will address the people of Frankfort and Franklin county at the Opera House in this city, on Wednesday, October 2d, at 2 o'clock p. m.

Every arrangement will be made to make the occasion one of interest to the people, as Mr. Yerkes is an eloquent and graceful speaker. Come out and hear him.

HE LOVED HER TENDERLY.

They were from the country, these two young lovers, who had come in to see the Street Fair in all its vastness, and of course they took in the dog show. In seeking a position where they could get the best view of the stage they backed up into a corner of the large show window of the Blandin building, where they were wedged in by the dense crowd around them. Feeling the brick wall against his shoulder he naturally thought he had solid backing, and seeing those around him intently watching the show he gently slipped his arm around her waist and pressed her yielding form to his bosom, from time to time mending his hold and giving her an extra squeeze, all un- mindful of the fact that the Blandin was watching him through a window as large as the end of the house and enjoying the fun. Here's to you, old man, hoping you may hold to her as tight through life as you did Wednesday morning.

Spare Women.

In former years when thin women wished to gain flesh and roundness of form they would take warm baths and follow this by rubbing into the skin cod liver oil. Now they employ the more elegant way of buying Scott's Emulsion and taking it internally. It increases the weight of thin ladies and delicate children.

Does it Pay to Buy Cheap.

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the KODOL. It has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only leads and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but always inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. For sale by S. B. Holmes. 4-1y

SPLENDID PEARS.

Our old colored friend, Mr. Levi Berry, the Cove Hill market candor, brought us, on Monday, a specimen of the pears he raised on a dwarf tree only five feet high. They are certainly the finest we have seen this season, and are as delicious as they are handsome. Mr. Berry had some of these pears, with other fruit, on exhibition at the Street Fair. He says he had fine success with all his fruit this season.

COUGHS KILL

We know of nothing better than coughing to tear the lining of your throat and lungs. It is better than wet feet to cause bronchitis and pneumonia. Only keep it up and you will succeed in reducing your weight, losing your appetite, bringing on a slow fever, and making everything right for the germs of consumption. Better kill your cough before it kills you.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

kills coughs of every kind. A 25 cent bottle is just right for an ordinary cough; for the harder coughs of bronchitis you will need a 50 cent bottle; and for the coughs of consumption the one dollar size is most economical. "My cough reduced me to a mere skeleton. I tried many remedies, but they all failed. After using the Cherry Pectoral I immediately began to improve, and three bottles restored me to health. I believe I owe my life to it."

THAT VERDICT.

The jury in the case of James Howard, accused of the murder of Wm. Goebel, rendered a verdict on Wednesday morning. It found Howard guilty of murder and condemned him to death.

The verdict was a stunning surprise to almost everybody.

The almost universal expression was that of disgust.

Further than that the less said the better, as silence shows the contempt which it deserved.

Prevented A Tragedy.

Timely information given Mrs. George Long, of New Straitsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at J. W. Gayle's drug store.

If troubled with rheumatism give Chamberlain's Pain-Balm a trial. It will not cost you as cent if it does no good. One application will relieve the pain. It also cures sprains and bruises in one-third the time required by any other treatment. Cuts, burns, frostbites, quinsy, pains in the side and chest, glandular and other swellings are quickly cured by applying it. Every bottle warranted. Price, 25 and 50 cents. J. W. Gayle, druggist.

For Sale.

A photograph, in good condition, is offered for sale cheap. Apply at this office. 1f.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years to the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a god-send to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by J. W. Gayle Druggist.

Dr. R. P. Buckmaster

CALICO QUILT.

The premium calico quilt of the Street Fair was made by Miss Sallie Miller, of Bridgeport, this county, more than thirty years ago. It is a perfect beauty, and exhibits great skill and taste in execution. It is for sale, and it would be a valuable addition to any lady's home.

TRIMBLE WINS PRELIMINARY FIGHT.

As was expected Judge Cantrill decided that South Trimble was the nominee of the Democratic party for Congress in this district, and entitled to have his name go under the Democratic emblem. Mr. Moody at once took an appeal to the Court of Appeals.

The ancients believed that rheumatism was the work of a demon within a man. Any one who has had an attack of sciatic or inflammatory rheumatism will agree that the infliction is demonic enough to warrant the belief. It has never been claimed that Chamberlain's Pain Balm would cast out demons, but it will cure rheumatism, and hundreds bear testimony to the truth of this statement. One application relieves the pain, and this quick relief which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

A FOLLOWER OF MEASLES.—In many instances a persistent cough follows an attack of measles. In speaking of this Mr. Walter H. Beel, editor of the Elkin (N. C.) Times, says: "Three weeks ago I had an attack of measles which left me with a bad cough. I took several doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the cough has entirely disappeared. I consider Chamberlain's medicines the best on the market." For sale by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

"Both my children were taken with whooping cough," writes Mrs. O. E. Dutton, of Danville, Ill. "A small bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar gave such relief that I used a 50 cent bottle, which saved me a doctor's bill." Nothing else so good. South & Longmoor, W. McKee Hardie.

A FINE LOCOMOTIVE.

The new Class "D" Northwestern type of locomotive, which has just been placed in service on the Overland Limited of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway, are intended to develop much greater power and a higher rate of speed than the familiar type of engine. Heavier equipment, greater number of cars to a train, and the demands of business and sharp competition call for a class of engine that will combine all essential features and yet not exceed the limit of weight which is considered to be good the saddle portion of the cylinder. The valves take their steam at the center, and in order to obtain the best results from the method of steam distribution a novel arrangement of link motion has been introduced, making an exceptionally perfect distribution of steam. The cylinders themselves are 20 inches in diameter by 26 inches stroke, and propelled by 200 pounds per square inch steam pressure, resulting in the 80-horsepower engine to carry the engine at a high rate of speed with a relatively low number of revolutions. The engine weighs, in working practices on American railways, and which it is believed these new engines possess.

The Northwestern type has what is known as a trailing wheel which supports an outside bearing, thus helping largely to steady the engine in running at high speed around curves, and an experienced railroader will notice many other striking innovations, particularly in the boiler and cylinders, which are perhaps the first thing that will strike the eye, as the old-time steam chests have been entirely abandoned and replaced by the run type of valves substituted in order, 100,000 pounds, 90,000 pounds of which are on the four driving wheels, the remainder being divided between the truck and trailing wheels. The tender carries 5,200 gallons of water and 12 tons of coal which would be ample for a run of 200 miles with a train of ten cars, and it is expected a speed of 75 miles an hour on a level stretch can be maintained, or with an 8-car train a speed of 80 or 90 miles an hour is considered entirely practicable. With the wonderful possibilities of speed and economy in operation the performance of this new type of locomotive will be watched with great interest.

[Delayed Letter.] HAPPY RIDGE.

The farmers are almost through with the season. Mr. Walter Marshall and family, Mr. E. F. Smith and wife, spent last Saturday and Sunday in Tiger, the guests of their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom (John) and daughter, Miss Ronni, visited relatives on Benson Sunday.

Masters Willie and Houston and Misses Jennie and Ella Duval attended church at Bethel Sunday last.

Mr. John Williams, Senones, of Lexington, is in our community this week.

Mrs. Pinkie Rucker and granddaughter, of Clayville, Messrs. Fountain Agnes and Willis Stratton, of Peytona, also Mr. Haskell Black and sister, Miss Linnis, of Bridgeport, spent Sunday with Mr. Henry Smith and family.

Miss Mary Lewis is visiting Mr. Mitch Harrod and family, at Flat Creek, just now.

Mr. Willis Roberts and Miss Ethel Moore were out driving last Sunday morning.

Mr. John Duval looked very lonely Sunday evening, going to Bellpoint without Charley and the kissing bug.

Mr. Willie Gools and wife visited her parents Sunday.

Miss Agnes Brawner was the delightful guest of Mrs. Fannie Miles Sunday evening.

Mr. Jim Ed Branner, of Bridgeport, has purchased Mr. John Penn's farm at Harvile.

Mr. Willie Roberts says one of the names is the same, so now we believe he practices what he preaches, as he was out driving with Miss Fannie Johnson Sunday evening.

The Masses Smith entertained a crowd on Sunday night last. Music, conducted by Messrs. Jesse Steger and Oscar Clark.

Mr. Robert Spaulding called on Miss Mabel Richardson Sunday evening, as usual.

The protracted meeting at Pleasant Ridge commenced last Tuesday night. Rev. Mr. Adkins and Rev. L. D. Stucker occupied the pulpit. Pleased to see a large crowd.

Mr. Jesse Steger called on Miss Pearl Cham Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Willie Moore, who has been very ill is able to be out again, we are glad to say.

The First Cincinnati Fall Festival, Sept. 19th to 29th.

"If you can't go to Paris, come to the Paris of America."

One hundred thousand dollars have been set aside for the festivities of the Cincinnati Fall Festival. An Industrial Exposition will be the leading feature. All the famous permanent exposition buildings will be occupied. They cover over 100,000 square feet of space and will be filled with new, novel, instructive and interesting exhibits. Cincinnati originated Industrial Expositions in the United States, and the present one promises to be more attractive and novel than ever before.

$1,000 in Gold Will be given for the best float in the great Trades and Manufacturers Parade. A gorgeous Flower Parade, the greatest spectacle ever witnessed in Cincinnati, will be a feature of the festival. The Plaza will cover both sides of the canal for many thousand feet, filled with novel entertainments from all parts of the world—a new and modern Midway Plaisance.

In the Great Springer Music Hall

One of the largest and most famous auditoriums in America, spectacular allegory will be given with grand cast and gorgeous scenery. New costumes and inspiring music.

The opening of the festival will be heralded by booming of cannon, ringing of bells, and the welcoming ceremonies in honor of the Harvest Queen, whose royal barge will be met on its way down the Ohio, and who will be escorted in grand state to a grand reception at Springer Hall. Novel and elaborate fireworks display will be made from moving boats.

The Zoo, Coney Island, and other summer resorts will have special programs.

A day will be set apart for the Trades Unions of the city, and another day devoted to a Monster Athletic Carnival.

Cincinnati cordially invites her neighbors to participate in these festivities. Low rate excursions will be run daily via Queen & Crescent Route and other special excursions for days upon which especially interesting portions of the vast program of festivities and amusements take place

OUR FALL RECEPTION!

On September 25, 26, 27 and 28 we shall hold our Fall Reception and Opening, and we would be pleased if every citizen of this county would favor us with a call. We do not invite you to our opening to sell you goods—not at all.

For the past few months we have been searching the best markets for choice things in.

Clothing, Shoes, Hats and Gents' Furnishings!

And now, while our stock is at its best, we ask you to give us the pleasure of showing you the very latest things in each department. Come and look, and buy at your pleasure.

During our business experience in Frankfort of more than 25 years we have endeavored to treat every man, woman and child fairly, and we feel confident that this invitation will be cordially received and accepted by everyone.

The freedom of the store is yours, and the display of new fall goods in Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits and Overcoats, and pretty, natty Furnishings, Stylish Shoes and Hats, will amply repay you for the time spent in making us a call; besides, we have prepared something in the way of entertainment to make your visit a pleasant one.

TO HELP GALVESTON.

Galveston, Texas, Sept. 18, 1900.
Dear Sir:

At the time of the storm, September 8th, we had in press a very handsome publication entitled "Pictorial Galveston." It is a book of something over a hundred pages, printed on 8-10 and coated paper, filled with views of this, one of the most beautiful cities in the world. It was to have been issued this week by the business men of Galveston as a souvenir advertisement of the city. We find that possibly one-half of the edition can be saved, and we are now binding those copies and will have them ready for delivery very shortly.

We have rendered the profits of this publication to the Galveston Relief Committee, and under their auspices the book will be sold to the general public at $2.00 a volume. The book is one of the handsomest things that has ever come from the printing press, and is a souvenir of Galveston of the day before the storm. As a record of what the city was and as a prophecy of what the city will be when restored, this volume is well worth the money, as it is the only thing of record in that line. Besides, purchasers will have the satisfaction of knowing that they are contributing to the relief of thousands who were left homeless and destitute by the hurricane.

We beg to request that you will at once in your columns advertise this volume, and receive orders for the book, forwarding the same to us with the money at $2 a volume. We feel that we may appeal to you in a fraternal spirit, and that you can safely guarantee to purchasers full value for their money.

We will be able to save, perhaps, 2,000 or 3,000 volumes. Of course the first orders received will be the first orders filled. Orders received after the edition is exhausted will be returned with the cash.

May I not personally appeal to you on behalf of humanity to push this little enterprise in your columns? For yourself alone you will find the book a satisfactory investment. Possibly you can get your business organizations to take a few copies, and certainly many people of artistic taste in your city will be glad to have a volume. I can assure you upon honor that they will not be disappointed.

Address all orders and make checks payable to the Galveston Tribune. Begging your early attention, I am,

Yours very truly,

CLARENCE OUSLEY,

Editor Galveston Tribune.

THE GALVESTON RELIEF COMMITTEE.

IN MEMORIAM.

Whereas, In the providence of God Mrs. Mary Jane Lewis, a beloved and honored member of this society, and for many years its president, has been removed to a higher sphere; therefore,

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to the will of the All-wise Father, we can but feel very deeply her loss.

Resolved, That in her long and useful life she has set us an example of beautiful Christian fortitude and unflinching faith that we should endeavor to imitate, to the end that we shall be more certain of the reward that is sure to come to those whose lives are such as hers.

Resolved, That these resolutions shall be spread upon the minutes of this society, and a copy of them be sent to the family of the deceased.

SALLY JACKSON, Secretary.

RIISING YOUNG WRITERS OF POETRY.

Among younger Kentucky writers whose work is being widely recognized by Eastern periodicals are Howard H. Farmer, of Frankfort, who is a real poet; Ole Young Rice, of Louisville, and George Harrison Conrad, formerly of Ludlow, but now temporarily sojourning at Flagstaff, Arizona. All these have a genuine gift and deserve fuller recognition from their people than they are now receiving.
